

CANDIDATES' VIEWS

ON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

Brief Statements From Aldermanic Aspirants on the Civic Issues

P. E. DUTCHART

"I am not appealing to the citizens as the representative of any particular question. I am out to work for the welfare of the city at large, and if elected will do my best to help advance its interests as a whole."

"I am in favor of municipal ownership of the public utilities, and also in making these the very best additions, and will give all the aid I can to the betterment of our electric light, telephone and waterworks systems, and also to the improvement of fire protection. I am also strongly in favor of making street improvements of a permanent nature as possible."

"The principle of the city charter is good, I believe, but it needs certain changes made to suit our conditions. I believe that having the executive work in connection with city government done by a commission is the correct idea, but I also think that the powers of the council and also of this commission should be more clearly defined, the council always being the governing body."

"Vagrants occupying the city council should be fined by the people. 'Lessees occupying property should have votes on municipal matters under certain conditions."

"In fact, as time will show, there will be many necessary changes to be made, especially as there are a growing class and we are no doubt these can and will be obtained."

"I would also like to see the city close a final and satisfactory agreement with the G. T. P. and will, if elected, do all possible to have this done at an early date as possible."

W. H. CLARK.

"I want to see the water-works and sewerage system extended and absolutely necessary in aiding the development of the city that they should be extended. It will induce people to build, and it is also necessary in maintaining the public health."

"In favor of having the city charter amended as soon as possible. There is no doubt that it needs amendment in certain things."

"I think that a street railway should be built in two years' time, it may not pay at first, but would be an excellent advertisement for the city."

"A complete new system of telephones should be installed. An expert should be employed to lay out and report to the council. The council should decide themselves upon what system to adopt."

"I would like to see some satisfactory conclusion come to with the G. T. Pacific as soon as possible."

"The government by commission is all right, but it involves the heavy executive work of the city. If we want good business men in the council we can't overburden them with executive work. A business man has not time to attend to it, and it is not right that he should be asked to do so."

DANIEL LATTA.

"Mr. Littlefield is entitled to give his views on municipal matters. I did not think it right that a candidate for alderman should be called upon to express his opinions publicly on matters like those taken up by the city council, for the reason that the candidate, if he elected an alderman, might change his views when the matters come before the council were thoroughly discussed. Ratepayers would then blame him for making promises in election time and going back on them as the year went on. Mr. Latta believed that the question which should come up to the ratepayers at the municipal elections was whether the men they were voting for had sufficient judgment to carry on the affairs of the city. If elected he would do his best to aid in conducting municipal affairs in an honest and business-like manner."

A. YORK.

"I am in favor of having a better police force and fire brigade. The present men are all right, but more should be employed and higher wages given."

"If we are going to have an efficient fire brigade we must have more men permanently employed at higher wages."

"I would favor giving the present system of taxation another fair trial. There does not seem to have been much fault found with it."

"I stand out strongly for municipal ownership of public utilities. There are in my opinion too many commissioners. I think that one would be sufficient. And there should be an expert city engineer employed. If elected I will certainly do my best for the welfare of Edmonton and its citizens."

GERMANY'S CHANGING PUR-POSE.

Berlin, Dec. 6.—Chancellor von Buelow opened the debate in the Reichstag on the Government's new measures for increasing and adapting the tax system to properly meet the Empire's increased requirements, imperial finances, he said, presented a gloomy picture in comparison with those of Great Britain and France. Germany had been living from hand to mouth.

THE CIVIC ACCOUNTS

venerable and this year was to be made to provide for same. The sinking funds had not been properly tested since the present secretary treasurer had not been elected and had been seated while he considered there was a shortage. Valuable assets such as fire hoses, harness, street sprinkler, fire appliances, tools etc. were charged to expense account and therefore retain no value in the accounts and no inventory had been taken. It needed no expert to decide the majority of these errors but the council thought otherwise.

Alderman Clark of the finance committee wrote various plans to obtain a qualified municipal accountant and received several replies. Amongst the applicants there was only one man who was recognized as a competent accountant and who offered his services at $20.00 per month, the same figure that is being paid to the man obtained. Alderman Clark was aware of this fact and I would like to know why the man that was required was chosen. Upon the arrival of the supposed expert I had the pleasure of making his acquaintance and at my first interview I was informed by this gentleman that Alderman Clark informed that he had not been called in to hold an investigation but something of a private nature. I attended the city offices on several occasions and handed him my documents and reports and argued my side of the question so did the secretary treasurer. At the end of a week or ten days he appeared before the council and instead of making definite statements one way or the other confined his remarks to saying that he might not agree with the auditor but that the report handed in the incorrect statements of the secretary treasurer for publication. According to these statements was a two paragraph report signed by myself stating that I had made the statements of receipts and expenditures correct, which this expert drew the council's attention to, but failed in stating the corrections amounting to nearly six thousand dollars that had been made before I had done so. This report was written by this expert and not by myself and would appear to be somewhat of a contradiction to my previous statement which I objected to signing believing that all records should be published with the statements in the pamphlet issued and that his report should be included also.

This happened about the middle of August and I had for several months been making a detailed audit of the secretary treasurer's books and reports for the last quarter of the previous year and which was due at the end of Aug. The secretary treasurer absolutely refused to sign the account before the report. Alderman Clark absolutely refused to see that if this was done saying that if the secretary treasurer would not put it through he would not interfere.

Upon his refusal to sign the above mentioned report written for me by this expert, much to my surprise he said that if I signed it Alderman Clark would promise to see that my change would be made at the next meeting of the council. This looked bad to me and believing that our吐tivity evidence of this style of operation was of great use I signed a report and at the next meeting of council I asked Alderman Clark to sign that my account went through and my presence that secretary treasurer reluctantly took back his previous report and without a murmur certified my statement and also the chairman of the finance committee and I was pain on the very night that the expert appeared before the council. The objection to paying me made by the secretary treasurer was that I had no complete audit and had not checked the tax roll. A few days after this and when the secretary treasurer apparently had put the expert wise regarding my supposed demands he also accused me of not having checked the tax roll and I have no doubt something will appear in his report to this effect. But when I informed him that this was old news and the reason the secretary treasurer would not sign the account until he made me Mr. Clark's kind offer, he did not seem very well pleased.

I challenge Alderman Clark to dispute these statements, and I would like to draw attention to the fact, that when Mr. Clark was given an opportunity at a public meeting, to give his reason for my dismissal, Alderman Clark was the man who rose to apologize for him and the substance of his speech was to the effect that owing to the ill-disposition existing between the secretary treasurer and myself, my complaints had been intensified, which means that he is giving an opinion that even an expert would treat me as a rascal. If any of the taxpayers ever had any contact with the secretary treasurer and if they did in their casual acquaintance with him, what could have been his attitude toward the man whose duty it was to publicly charge me with?

I will here state that before I made public my complaints, I gave the secretary treasurer every opportunity by quiet suggestion to improve his accounts, but my efforts were only met with threats and threats of violence. I believe that it is the duty of a good civic government to elect men to represent us whom will respect the trust imposed upon them and to this end I write this letter believing that men who do favors to persons receive favors are not the men we want in the council, especially under the present system of bureaucratic government.

A. R. TOMLINSON,
Late City Auditor.

FOSTER'S FORECAST

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbances to cross continent 3 to 7, warm wave 2 to 6, cool wave 5 to 9. Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about 6, cross west of Rockies by close of 7, great central valleys 8 to 10, eastern states 11. Warm wave will cross west of Rockies about 6, great central valleys, 8, eastern states 10. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about 9, great central valleys 11, eastern states 13.

This disturbance will bring a week of the most radical weather of the month. The cold wave, extensive and severe, will affect the entire country. December will be a part of this general radical disturbance that will cover the first half of the month. This disturbance will be of greater than normal force when it reaches the fringe and will continue to a fierce and will come on to a cold front for four or five days till it is well out onto the Atlantic.

Temperatures will not go as low following the disturbance as in the preceding week, but following the extreme temperatures will be a short puff of blizzard-like weather. Precipitation will not be great but more general than usual.

Temperatures of December will average above normal in the Mississippi valley and in Canada between the great lakes and the Rockies.

Not far from Dec. 2, 10, 18, and 26, cool or cold waves are expected in the latter named sections, but they will not bring very low temperatures. During the first week of the month, while the warm waves near 7, 13, 24, and 31, will bring unusually high temperatures, altogether making the monthly temperature average above the middle northward.

All other sections of the continent will average about normal and if week of the month be excepted all other sections will average above the average about normal and if first the month will average warmer than first week in all sections and thus reverse the natural order.

TRAIN STALLED FOUR DAYS.

St. Paul, Dec. 6.—A pall of oysters and a case of whisky found in an express car kept the passengers on a railroad train in North Dakota alive, while the train was stalled four days by enormous snow drifts. There were 16 passengers in addition to the train crew and the oysters were fried in a most informal way on a coal stove. The train arrived at Fargo this afternoon.

PANIC ON AN OCEAN LINER.

Havana, Dec. 5.—A wild panic on board the French liner steamer Champaign today resulted in injury to six persons and the possible drowning of six others. The Champaign arrived from French and Spanish ports with 1,000 passengers. The ship had a small cargo and but little coal and after anchoring and discharging cabin passengers, she began cooling. At the time she was listing, a large crowd of Spanish immigrants swarmed to the side to watch the lighters caused her to let more and take in a quantity of water in her coal chutes. Some of the lighter men came out, that she was sinking, and a frantic struggle ensued, and fought for a chance to escape. Some 400 women and men jumped to the lighters and a score of them jumped into the water. A few of them swam ashore and some of them clung to small boats.

THE REPORT DENIED

The Calgary Herald published on Saturday the following despatch:

Edmonton, Dec. 2.—The Alberta government has decided to send out a rescue party to search for Returning Officer George McLeod, of the Peace River district, and Lucien Dubois, the candidate, who left for the Sturgeon Lake polling place, 400 miles northwest of Edmonton six weeks ago.

F. Maroney has arrived after making a trip of seven and a half days from Lesser Slave Lake. When he left there were no signs of the party. McLeod is a rancher and has often been over the trail before. It is feared they have perished in a dangerous passage of the Athabasca river.

When shown this item this morning, J. K. McDonald, deputy Attorney-General, said that there was absolutely no truth in the statement that a search party had been sent out. The government had become anxious, Mr. McDonald said, at the previous absence of Dubois and McLeod, and steps were taken to have a patrol of police sent out if it were found necessary. Inquiries were instituted by the police and the result was that Dubois had been at the Lesser Slave Lake about November 8 and had left there with Cornwall, the other candidate for Sturgeon Lake. It had been therefore deemed unnecessary to send the police patrol north.

TELEGRAPHICROOF COLLAPSED

London, Dec. 6.—Ninety-feet of the roof at the southernmost end of Charlton Cross railroad station collapsed without warning today, carrying with it four tons of iron beams and causing great damage to the roof. The casualty list of this extraordinary accident included two persons, known to have been killed, two missing, and probably buried beneath the tons of debris, eight seriously injured and twenty slightly injured.

HOMESTEAD ENTRIES

Ottawa, Dec. 6.—Homestead entries for November were 3,424 or 824 more than for November last year. Over 200 of this iteration was at Regina, 200 at Battleford, 100 at Red Deer, and 100 at Edmonton. Alameda and Yorkton show increases and Calgary a small decrease.

FOURTEEN INJURED

St Paul, Minn., Dec. 6.—A Northern Pacific passenger train going west was run off by a freight train at a crossing in the outskirts of St. Cloud, Minn. The engineer of the passenger train seeing that a collision was threatened opened the throttle and made a dash for the crossing. The train was cut except the last coach, and this was struck and thrown from the track. Fourteen persons were hurt, five being in a serious condition.

WANT LESS CAPITAL

London, Dec. 6.—The Calgary and Edmonton Land Company has made application to the treasury division for a reduction of its capital by £241,500.

BANNERMAN WILL FORM GOVERNMENT

London, Dec. 5.—The following official announcement was made yesterday: "Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman, informed King Edward that he will be unable to submit his proposed arrangement to the Government until the formation of a new Government until the 11th." King Edward left London this afternoon to visit Lord Arlington at Wimborne.

LOCAL

The December number of Washington's guide has been published.

Mayoralty nominations in Calgary resulted as follows: John Emmerson and J. R. Thompson. There are eight men candidates for aldermanic seats.

The meeting of the Northern Alberta Medical Association, announced for tonight, has been postponed for one week, on account of the public meeting.

New members are constantly being initiated into the Knights and Arrows. No. 552 will soon have one hundred members enrolled on its books. They meet every first and third Monday in the month in Houston's Hall.

Bert Conover, who appeared before Magistrate Cowan, Tuesday on a charge of forging checks, was dismissed, the prosecution not putting in an appearance. The Chinaman who was up for stealing, was remanded till tomorrow evening.

The membership roll of the Young Liberals is lengthening very satisfactorily. The club is under capable and experienced management, the rooms convenient, large and well furnished and the socials every month bright and splendid. Future The membership fee has been fixed at $6.00 per year and from the splendid reception given the enterprise its financial stability is assured.

Watkin Mills and his English quartette, will give two grand concerts in McDougall church on Wednesday and Thursday, December 13 and 14. The famous English basso will be remembered gratefully as an artist who brought a great reputation with him and sang consistently above it. He is in the prime of life and in the peak of his noble powers. He commands such a varied range of style that he satisfies the most critical ear. The following artists appear with Mr. Mills: Miss Kirkwood soprano; Miss Longdale, contralto; Harold Wilde, tenor; Edward Zelovitz pianist. This is the finest quartette party ever heard in Canada, and a great musical treat is in store for Edmonton. At present they are filling special engagements in Victoria and Vancouver, and in the various festivals there, where they are being greeted with great enthusiasm.

—Calgary Herald. The new officers of the squadrons at Calgary, High River and Okanagan have been appointed and the selection has been made with approval from all concerned. The main reason to believe the new soldiers of the King will enrol a very superior body of men. The local officers will be: Major J. G. Gordon, Captain Chas. William McNeely, Captain Neil McNeely, Lieutenants N. Lindsay, F. C. Lovas, Joe Robinson. High River Squadron will have the following officers: Major G. C. Ross, Capt. Watkin Mills and his English quartette, will give two grand concerts in McDougall church on Wednesday and Thursday, December 13 and 14. The famous English basso will be remembered gratefully as an artist who brought a great reputation with him and sang consistently above it. He is in the prime of life and in the peak of his noble powers. He commands such a varied range of style that he satisfies the most critical ear. The following artists appear with Mr. Mills: Miss Kirkwood soprano; Miss Longdale, contralto; Harold Wilde, tenor; Edward Zelovitz pianist. This is the finest quartette party ever heard in Canada, and a great musical treat is in store for Edmonton. At present they are filling special engagements in Victoria and Vancouver, and in the various festivals there, where they are being greeted with great enthusiasm.
